And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

According to back files of The Hamlin Herald, The Celotex Corporation became sole owners of Texas Cement Plaster Company following the stroke of "12" midnight, March 15, 1945, to begin what is now being celebrated as the 25th Anniversary of the Celotex Corporation in Hamlin.

According to the story, the change over was very simple as nothing really changed except the ownership name. All branches and employees of this gypsum products manufacturing enterprise, including all properties at "Plasterco" and at Longworth, both in Fisher County, were asked to keep on, "as they were."

The Texas Cement Plaster Company was established in Fisher County in 1910 by S. M. Gloyd of Oklahoma City.

So while we are congratulating Celotex on their 25 years in Hamlin and all that they have meant to the community over the years we can also look back and see that this area has been blessed for 60 years with all the benefits that a manufacturing plant of this type can mean to a community.

Many changes have taken place at the plant since Celotex took over in 1945 to keep the plant up-to-date and only those employees who have been through them all would fully realize most of these changes.

One big change that for the most part went un-noticed to the general public but was important to the future of the local plant was the acquisition of the Celotex Corporation by the Jim Walter Corporation in 1964. While the local products are still marketed as Celotex products they have benefited from the dynamic leadership and research that the parent company has brought to Celotex. The success story of this leader in the housing industry has few parallels in any industry.

We join all of Hamlin in saluting The Celotex Corporation, The Jim Walter Corporation and most especially to D. W. "Wood" Cowan and the local employees that have done so much over the years to benefit Hamlin. We have very few organizations that have not been helped at one time or another by the people of Celotex, in fact, we have few organizations that do not have at least one or more of these fine people as members.

It is hard to put an economic value on the benefits to a community that such a plant as this contributes—through their payrolls, their purchases and their donations to civic and church activities. But without a doubt the benefits are tremendous.

The late Bowen Pope, editor of the Herald at the time Celotex took over wrote the following:

"Just what will happen to the name 'Plasterco'? It, of course, meant 'Texas Cement Plaster Co.' Wonder if some day, we Hamlin people will be saying 'out at Celotex'? That would not be hard to line up to. A 'Celotex man' hereafter in this community, is a fellow who is employed at the Celotex Plaster Plant. But it makes no difference what the name, the gyp dirt and gyp rock and the gyp dust will be the prevailing color for what the men do out at the 'mill'."

"Hamlin people extend a hearty welcome to the new firm and hope that they will find that they have made even a better investment than expected."

Today, we indeed do refer to "out at Celotex" and we hope that they did make a better investment than they expected and that it continues to be a good investment for Celotex and its parent company, Jim Walter Corporation.

Happy Anniversary Celotex, and we hope that Hamlin can help you celebrate your 50th anniversary.

Open House At Celotex Plant Tuesday

Plant Tours Scheduled 9 to 7

The Celotex Corporation, a subsidiary of the Jim Walter Corporation since 1964, will open its celebration of the 25th anniversary of the production of wallboard and other gypsum products from its Hamlin plant with an open house on Tuesday, Mar. 10, according to D. W. Cowan, plant manager.

The actual anniversary will be marked on Monday, March 16, as the Celotex Corporation purchased the old Texas Cement Company at the start of this day in 1945.

As part of the anniversary celebration a dinner has been planned Mar. 12 to honor the 27 employees who have been with Celotex during these 25 years. The dinner will be held in Stamford at 7 p.m. in the Cliff House.

The local plant, which is one of 23 Celotex plants located throughout the country, is one of the largest employers in Hamlin with an annual payroll of approximately one million dollars. The plant produces some 150 million board feet of wallboard and other gypsum products annually.

Under normal operation, the plant employs some 140 people.

Plant tours will be conducted Tuesday from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. for the citizens of the Hamlin trade area as part of the anniversary celebration. Refreshments will be served. The public is cordially invited to participate in the Celotex "Open House."

The regular employee parking area will be made available for use exclusively by the visitors. Guides will be positioned here to direct guests to the safety sign where the tour will begin.

Ten tour guides will take the visitors in groups of ten through the plant. A new group will begin the tour every five minutes. It is estimated that the complete tour of the plant from the beginning to the finished product will take some 40 minutes.

Following the tour the guests will be directed to the personnel conference room where they will register, receive a brochure about the operation and be served refreshments.

A landmark dating back to 1910 when the Texas Cement and Plaster Company was established, the plant now features many mechanized operations which replaced the original use of mules and manual labor employed in the early days of operation.

One of the latest improvements to be added is a digital computer controlled knife.

Census Testing

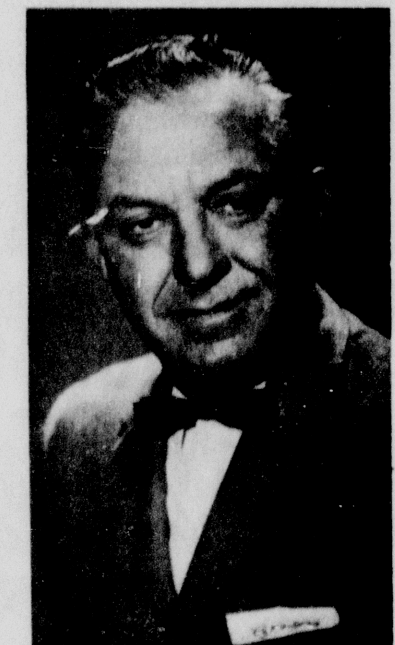

Testing for enumerators in the 1970 Census will be held in Stamford at 10 a.m. Thursday, Mar. 12, in the dining room of the Fire Department on the second floor of Stamford City Hall.

W-Texas Rehab Center Facing Financial Crisis

The West Texas Rehabilitation Center is in an acute financial situation. This was acknowledged at the Board of Directors meeting on Tuesday, February 17. The Center has suffered from severely curtailed Medicare payments and spiraling medical personnel costs.

Coupled with increasing patient loads and inflation in general, the non-profit facility has slowly been losing financial ground each month.

Board President, Bobby Sayles of Tuscola, states that after examining last year's records, many regular donors have not responded. After a brief survey of the area, many of the Board members stated that they felt that the public had the false assumption that the West Texas Rehabilitation Center was financially solvent.

Sayles stated that the only way the Center would continue to serve as a comprehensive rehabilitation center for the vast West Texas area was with continued public support; that no stop-gap methods would guarantee month by month operations.

It was pointed out that with the present financial situation, emergency funds are needed and it was hoped that an informed public would be a giving public and help the Center again reach monetary stability.

Three File for Places On School Board Election

Three candidates for the two positions on the Hamlin Board of Education have filed this week. Lewis Earl Madden filed for re-election. Others filing were David Casey and Clyde Lewis.

The terms of Madden and James E. Harrison are expiring. Harrison did not seek re-election.

Local Drive Set for Mar. 12

TWENTY YEARS AGO
(February 24, 1950)

Hamlin's Pied Pipers had to be content with the loser's role in the district basketball tournament played in the Abilene high school gymnasium Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Pressure of tournament competition with little experience in the type of play, caused the local five to play far below their form of the season and they were defeated in straight games.

All-District 6-A team selected from tournament performances, named Don Fowland and Joe Ailen Dean of Hamlin on the all-star group.

Tonight at 7:30 marks an organization meeting to be held at Johnson's Drive in for the purpose of forming a Junior Chamber of Commerce for Hamlin.

A group of Jaycees are to be in Hamlin from Sweetwater to assist in formation of the body.

Mrs. J. B. Meeks of Hamlin was awarded $50 in the Saturday drawing of the Pied Piper Days trade extension program being promoted by the trade development committee of the Hamlin Board of Community Development.

Since the holder of the first ticket drawn--good for $50-- was present, further drawing was not conducted.

Childress High School's Bobcats, champions of District 5-AA cage play, eked out a 64 to 62 victory Tuesday night at Childress over the Hamlin squad, champions of District 6-AA, in a hard fought battle attended by scores of Hamlin cage fans who followed their first district championship team in 24 years to the bi-district play.

The tilt was a close one all the way. The squads were tied 14-all at the end of the first period. Hamlin had a two-point lead with a 35-33 score at the half. At the third period whistle Hamlin still had a 48 to 47 margin.

Then things happened thick and fast in the critical fourth quarter. Jerald McCanlies, one of Hamlin's key man, was lifted from the game on personal fouls. With seconds remaining in the game, Childress went ahead by four points, which later was cut to the final 64 to 62 count when Cecil Robinson looped a nice pitch. David Wade was high pointer for the game and the Pied Pipers with 25 marks. Cecil Robinson made 17.

As a post-season basketball tilt played last Friday night at Haskell High School gymnasium with the Knox City girls, the Hamlin High School Pipers defeated the Class B crew 49-45.

Vodka Smelled Out

Vodka and other almost odorless beverages show up just as easily as their louder smelling alcoholic counterparts in the new breath test, says the Texas Safety Association.

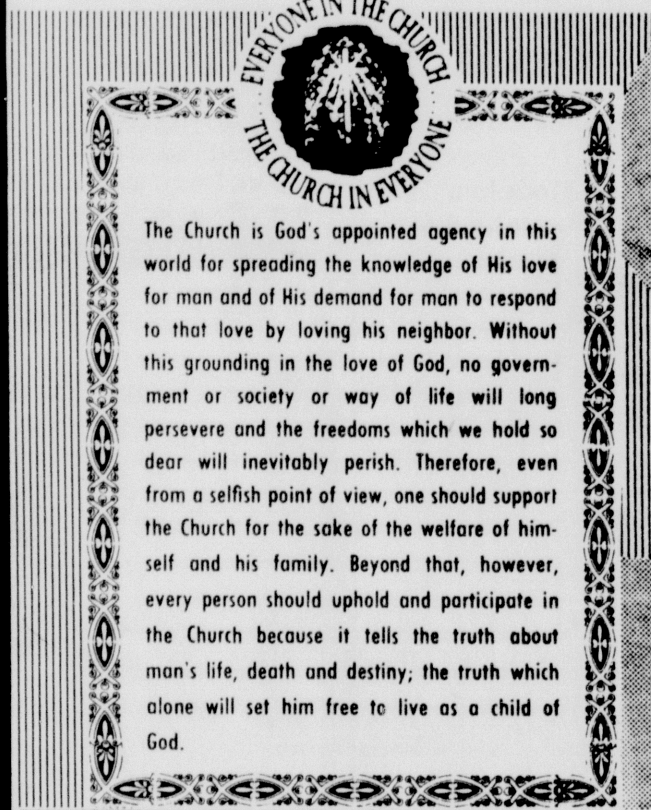

The breath test, used to show the amount of alcohol—if any—in a driver's blood, will be an effective tool in reducing the number of motor fatalities in Texas.

LEARNING
EARLY

"Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

This statement (made by Solomon, thousands of years ago) is just as true and vital today as it was then.

Teach your children the good practice of saving for the future. Teach them to attend worship services in God's house by taking them

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Police Dept. Gives Tips to Merchants To Stop Bad Checks

The Hamlin Police Department is receiving an increasing amount of complaints from merchants here about bad checks, according to Chief of Police Bryan Wasson. He warns merchants to take every precaution in protecting themselves in this type situation by demanding proper identification before cashing checks.

He suggests that the new drivers' license with the owner's picture be used for identification and the information including physical description, license number, etc. be placed on the back of the check. Some stores have rubber stamps made specifically for recording this information on the check.

Chief Wasson said that the Police Department could not act as a collecting agency but will assist any merchant in the prosecution of check violators. This, he said, is much easier with proper information. Also, he added, the likelihood of a person knowingly passing worthless checks is decreased when that person knows the merchant is going to check identification and record the information.

AUSTIN, — Top Texas officials have agreed on general outlines of a plan to combat the rising problem of drug abuse.

Gov. Preston Smith, Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes, Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin and House Speaker Gus Mutscher are united in a statewide concentration of effort. Plan was announced after a meeting of the four in Smith's office last week. Texas Justice Council will serve as coordinator.

Coordinated law enforcement action will first be called on to try and dry up the sources of dangerous drugs.

Top priority is given a "total education" campaign for youth, adults, teachers and law enforcement personnel on drug dangers and possible solutions to the problem.

Task forces will be named to develop effective concepts and action programs in enforcement and education.

Leaders agreed on this immediate-action program:

One-day seminars for Texas' law officers and prosecutors.

Exchange of vital information with Mexico.

Assistance through the Justice Council to implement school education.

Review of successful narcotics programs in other states.

Greater assistance to local enforcement and prosecuting agencies in evidence analysis.

Gathering of statistics in major cities on drug-related crime.

Creation of a model drug information office.

Narcotics strike forces will include local, state and federal personnel, military manpower and use of helicopter patrols along the Rio Grande.

Another task force will attempt to explore causes of drug use and to evaluate proposed research and rehabilitation programs as well as to implement educational programs in schools.

State officials will meet here March 13 with aides to U. S. Atty. Gen. John Mitchell. They will explore federal support possible under remedial programs and the uniform controlled dangerous substances act now before congress.

TOLL ROADS PROPOSED — In a surprise session with the State Highway Commission, Texas Turnpike Authority proposed that preliminary studies be made for the development of a massive toll road network estimated to cost more than $135 million.

Last year the Legislature authorized the agency, subject to the Highway Department's permission, to spend money for investigating the feasibility of additional pay-road projects.

Turnpike Authority asked the Commission to let it make exploratory studies of the following projects:

An 83-mile, $50 million mid-Texas turnpike from Hillsboro to Interstate 45 near Centerville, to provide a direct freeway from Dallas-Fort Worth to Houston-Beaumont areas.

A 20-mile, $40 million Dallas-Fort Worth-Trinity turnpike connecting Dallas and Fort Worth parallel to the present turnpike by way of the projected Greater Southwest International airport between the two cities.

An 8.8 mile, $18 million airport tollway connecting LBJ Freeway in Dallas to the new airport estimated for completion in 1973.

A $20 million toll road in San Antonio to follow the route of long-delayed U. S. 281 North Expressway.

A 1.2 mile, $7 million toll bridge across Mountain Creek Lake in Dallas County connecting the Oak Cliff and Arlington areas.

A turnpike from downtown Houston to Intercontinental Airport and possibly other facilities in the state's largest city.

Preliminary studies will take six to nine months. Feasibility surveys may follow where reasonable promise is shown for the projects.

WELFARE CRISIS AVERTED — Welfare Board cancelled its April 1 cuts in aid to needy families and medical assistance after Governor Smith ordered $13.5 million in medical school building funds shifted to welfare.

NEWS FROM ...

Sylvester

By MRS. R. M. BARR

We have a high cloudy morning and during the past week we had .90 in. of rain but we will just wait for this week, o. k?

Mr. Med Herron spent several days in Hamlin hospital but was doing real well on Sunday and will probably be home by the time this is out. The Herron's daughter, Meddie Grace from Snyder, visited with them over the weekend.

Don Douglass and sons of Big Spring spent a part of the weekend in the home of his parents, Ross and Lenora Douglass, but got sick and had to return home before he had planned to.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kiser visited in the home of the Derwin Maberrys in Brady for the weekend.

The members of the United Methodist Church enjoyed a Fellowship and dinner on Tuesday night of last week in the church basement.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson and boys of Duncanville visited in the Woodrow Lawlis home on the weekend.

Our town has lost one of our businesses. The Texaco station has closed and Truman Mauldin has taken over the Mobil station. J. C. (Cliff) Early has retired after being connected and selling Mobil products for 45 years here in Sylvester. The company gave him a plaque some three years ago for forty two years of service. We are glad that Cliff can retire, but we will miss him around the station.

We wish Truman Mauldin every success in the Mobil station. He has done real well in the Texaco so am sure he will continue to do as well. Just sorry to see our Texaco station close.

Arthur Lewis Maberry was a visitor in the morning service Sunday at the Baptist Church. Arthur attends John Tarleton in Stephenville.

The Porter family of Roscoe were guests in the Milt Montgomery home Sunday.

Mrs. Bill Watson told me on Sunday that they would be moving to their new home in Trent this week. Our loss is Trent's gain.

Miss Connie Beck of Dallas visited in the home of her parents, the Jim Becks, one weekend recently.

Our sympathy to the Brown family in the loss of their son, Tommy Max, who was killed in a pickup wreck Saturday night. He was the son of Cadmus Brown Jr., and a nephew of L. C. Brown and Mrs. Eddie Dickerson. The family lived in Liberty Hill, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Early visited Sunday afternoon in the home of their son, the Donie Early family of Hamlin.

The Thomas Ray Kiser family of Ft. Worth visited with relatives here and in Hamlin over the weekend.

Mrs. F. E. Meeks was able to attend church Sunday after recovery from eye surgery and the "flu." It was nice to see her out again.

Mrs. Retta Kidd was in church Sunday having been out several Sundays. Also hear she had a birthday last week — betcha she was 39.

Mrs. Homer Pursley was back in church after a bout with the "flu." Seems every one either has it or has had it maybe sometime soon it will be warm enough that we can get rid of the bug!

Delinquency Hearing Held

A juvenile delinquency hearing was held in Jones County Juvenile Court Friday in reference to the arrest Feb. 22 of a 16-year-old Hamlin youth for drunk and disorderly conduct.

The youth was placed under the jurisdiction of the Texas Youth Council and ordered to be committed to the State Training School for boys at Gatesville. He was ordered returned to the County jail pending consideration of probation.

SUPPORTING YOUR TOWN

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned, if you do not use more than a two-line space.

A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertising. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town, but refuses to advertise his own, is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising business man."

P. S. How many new residents and out of town shoppers saw your name and business this week?

Neinda Philosopher Claims Experts Have Confused TV Sets With High Standards of Living

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One disagrees with some experts this week.

Dear editor:

According to an article I read in a newspaper last night which I'd picked up in town earlier in the day while I was trying to find a good used battery for my car which I'm tired of parking on a hill so I can start the motor without much pushing, oh it's all right in dry weather but in wet weather you wind up at the bottom of the hill with the motor running but with the wheels spinning, my pasture isn't paved at any rate, according to this article, some world experts on economics have come up with a proposal to the United Nations on solving the problems of poor countries. They propose a world-wide sales tax on certain luxury items, with the money then to be distributed to poor nations. They said this tax would apply on those goods "the possession of which is indicative of the attainment of a relatively high standard of living by the purchaser."

I read the list of things and included are television sets and automobiles.

I'm afraid those world-wide economic experts haven't looked beyond the driveway or the outside antenna if they believe that owning a car or a T. V. set is proof you've reached a relatively high standard of living.

It seems to me they ought to try to figure out some other standard, say like owning a private swimming pool and a personal airplane, although you'd find if you checked closely enough a good many of those are mortgaged.

Cars and television sets aren't luxury items in this country. Bread and meat are.

I'm against the United Nations' taxing my car and television set but I'll meet them half way. They can tax my airplane as soon as I get one.

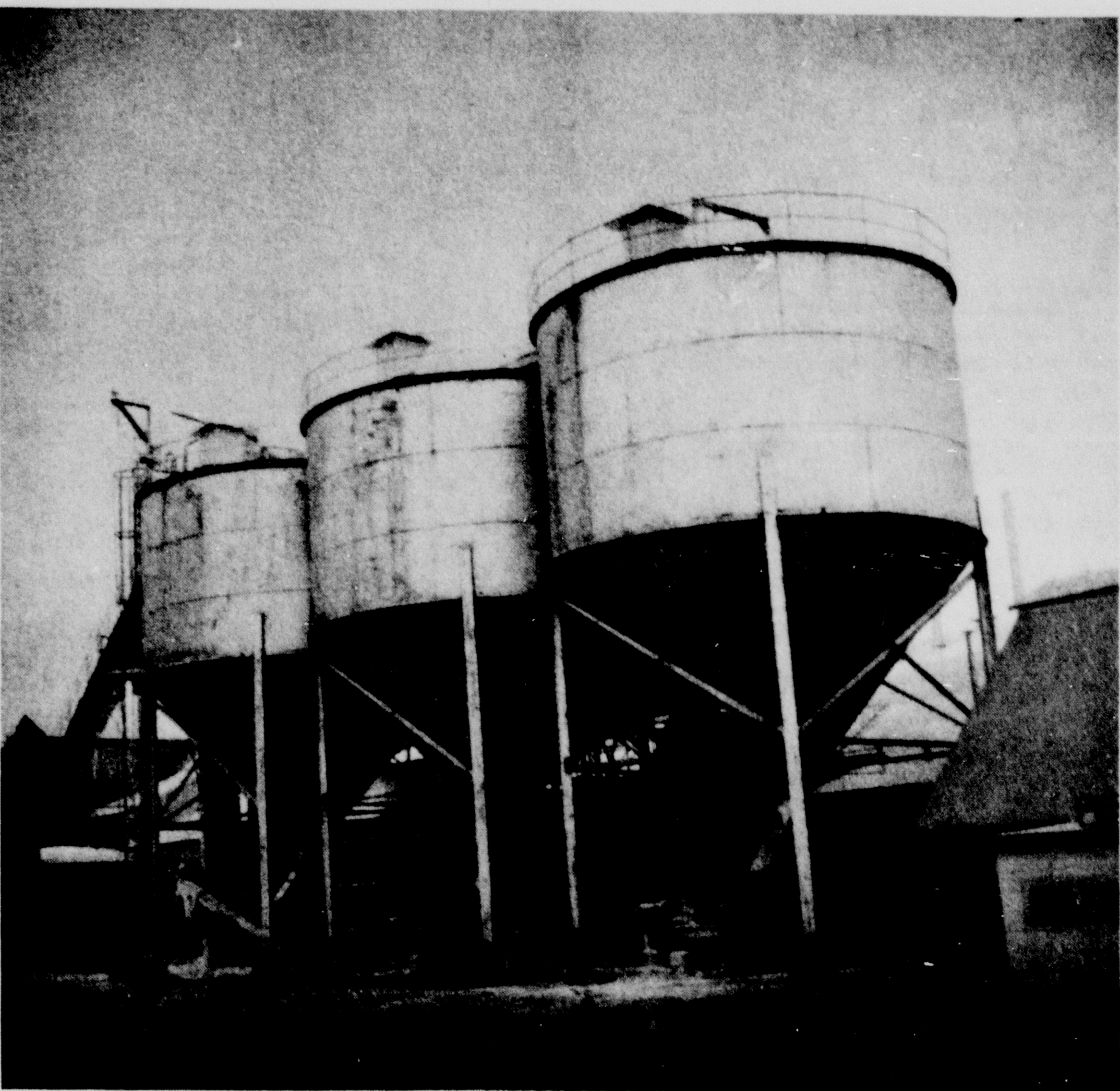

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

A Stocker-Feeder Day designed to explore the beef cattle industry in the Rolling Plains will be held at Seymour on March 25.

The program will get underway at 9:45 a.m. in the Farmers National Bank, according to Jones County Agricultural Agent Kirby Clayton. All farmers and ranchers in the county are encouraged to attend the event which is being sponsored by the Rolling Plains Economic Program (R-PEP).

Topics to be discussed include the types of cattle desired by feedlots, treatment of cattle prior to shipment, backgrounding or preconditioning, custom feeding, ownership of cattle through the feedlot and financing feedlot cattle.

and rancher who will discuss the "Profitability of Stocker Grazing and Custom Feeding for Baylor County Operation." Purpose of the Stocker-Feeder Day is to develop the economic potential of agriculture in the R-PEP area, points out Clayton. Central Part of County Under Quarantine for Hog Cholera

The central part of Jones County is now under Federal quarantine as a result of hog cholera outbreaks in the county, according to County Agent Kirby Clayton. The federal quarantine provides that no swine within the area may move out of the state, but are free to move anywhere within the state if they are not from an infected herd.

State quarantine has been placed only on infected herds within the federal quarantine area and infected herds may move to slaughter or market only under the supervision and by permission of the State Animal Health Commission.

The quarantine area is bounded on the north by U. S. 83 and FM 1636; on the east by FM 1226 and U. S. 83; on the south by FM 605, 707, and 1812; and on the west by FM 1281.

All herds having laboratory confirmed cases of hog cholera will be depopulated under the supervision of state and federal veterinarian. A 21 day waiting period is necessary before the producer can go back into the hog business, says Clayton.

All county swine producers should notify your local veterinarian if you suspect hog cholera. The local veterinarian will in turn notify the Texas Animal Health Commission in Austin, who will make a thorough investigation of the case and trace out the source of infection.

In the meantime swine producers will want to exercise caution in the purchase of new stock which might introduce the disease into their herd and also follow precautions on all other possible sources of infection.

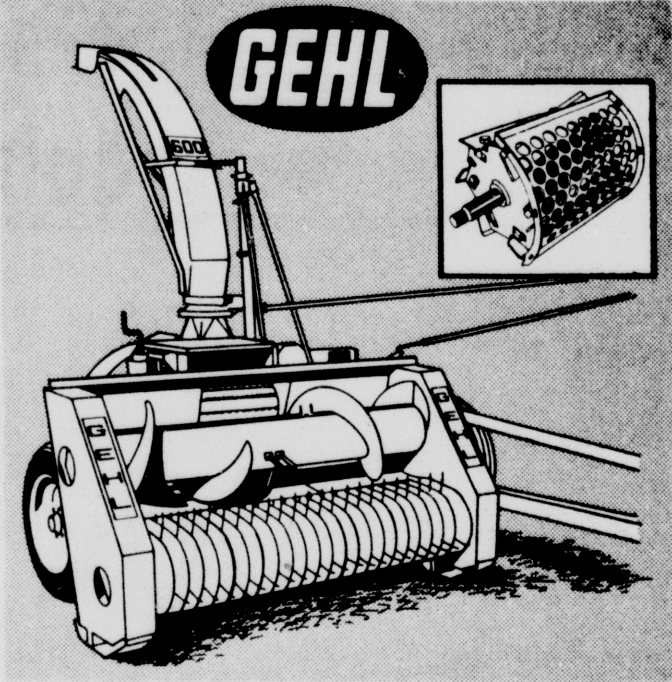

For further information on the program, contact your local veterinarian or county agricultural agent.

TEXAS CEMENT AND PLASTER COMPANY
... early day picture of the forerunner of Celotex Plant

From Truck Driver to Board Chairman Is Success Story of James W. Walter

The success story of James W. Walter, now chairman of the boards of Jim Walter Corporation and The Celotex Corporation, started with a two-lined classified ad in The Tampa Tribune on Oct. 13, 1946. Then a $50-a-week truck driver, the 24-year old Walter noticed a classified ad offering "nice little unfinished houses" for $895. To the newly married Navy veteran, this seemed like a good buy, particularly in view of the $50 a month he was paying for a rented apartment. On a page with 256 other ads, the small ad had cost only 60 cents, but contained an idea which grew into a diversified financial empire with annual sales exceeding $300 million.

Walter bought one of the advertised houses, but he never lived there. Instead he sold the little house for a $300 profit and returned to the builder, O. L. Davenport, with an idea for even more profits. The two formed a partnership and struggled along until one day they increased the size of their ad. "I'll never forget that day if I live to be a million," Walter reminisces. "Cars were backed up for blocks as people waited to hear how a house could sell for such a small price." At day's end, they had sold — for cash — 27 houses and the shell home industry was launched.

The young company met with success and two years later Walter bought out his partner's interest for about $50,000. He soloed with the business for a while and later added two partners — J. O. Alston and Arnold F. Saraw. In 1956 the company was incorporated and was listed on the New York Stock Exchange in 1964. Alston is now president and Saraw, secretary-treasurer, of Jim Walter Corporation.

Walter recognized a formerly neglected market consisting of hundreds of thousands of Americans with incomes less than $4,000 — farmers, field hands, mechanics, laborers, ranchers; men who worked with their hands; men who previously had not been considered as prospects for homes of their own.

What Jim Walter offered buyers was a "shell" home, completely finished on the outside and with floors and interior partition studs on the inside. The new buyer then realized substantial savings by finishing the interior himself.

The idea caught on, riding the crest of the do-it-yourself era. To date the company has sold more than 170,000 homes, financing 90 percent of its sales and making it one of the country's leading mortgagees. At one point more than 200 companies comprised the shell home industry, but today Walter stands alone in the field, building nearly 10,000 houses per year in some 20 states.

As the company grew subsidiaries were formed to handle needed services, such as mortgage financing, fire insurance, title insurance, advertising and building materials supply.

In 1959 the company branch-

27 YEARS — Bernie Smith, who will retire April 1, is one of the Celotex employees to be honored at a dinner Thursday, Mar. 12, for the employees who have been with the company during its 25 years of operating the Hamlin plant. He has been with the plant 27 years and has not had an accident during this time.

ed out of its home building and related activities when it bought 70 percent of the stock of the First National Bank in St. Petersburg, Florida, which it retained until late 1968.

There were other acquisitions, too, the largest of which was The Celotex Corporation, one of the nation's largest multi-line building materials producers. The Hamlin plant was part of this transaction. Walter first bought an interest in the company in 1962, merged it into Jim Walter Corporation in 1964, and moved the entire headquarters operation — everything from paper clips to computers — from Chicago to Tampa. Latest acquisition was in August, when Jim Walter bought the United State Pipe and Foundry Company.

At 46 Jim Walter has achieved notable success and made himself a multimillionaire in the 22 years since he first read about those "nice little unfinished houses," but he is not inclined to look back on what has been accomplished. Instead, he looks forward to what Jim Walter Corporation will do in the future.

That's Jim Walter's way of doing business.

Old Drugs

"Don't just toss away old medicines," says the Texas Safety Association, "make sure they are completely destroyed."

Harmful medicines left in incinerators or waste boxes in the yard may be a temptation for small children. TSA suggests medicines, discarded insecticides or cleaning aids be buried or flushed down the drain if practical.

New Traffic Laws

The Texas Safety Association reminds motorists that changes in Texas traffic laws now require the driver approaching a paved street or highway from an unpaved roadway to yield the right of way.

North Central Baptist Enters State Program

The North Central Baptist Church of Hamlin has entered the 1970 Texas Baptist Church Development Ministry, according to an announcement by their pastor, Rev. Harold D. Fleming.

The Church Development Ministry is sponsored by the Baptist General Convention of Texas and is designed to stimulate interest in church work by providing growth incentives. Churches and pastors making outstanding achievements during the year will be recognized by the Jones County Baptist Association.

The church will adopt goals for advancement in the areas of a better church, a better community and a better world. Specific projects will be completed in each of these areas.

A record of progress book is to be made under the direction of a special committee. The books are the basis for judging.

Clinton Watson, director of the Rural-Urban Missions Program within the Direct Missions Department of the B. G. C. T., is responsible for this ministry in Texas. He stated, "... total enlistment of a church's membership in Christian service is the primary aim and value of this ministry."

Dial 'O' For Help

Do you have a pre-schooler at home? The Texas Safety Association urges parents to teach little ones how to dial the operator in case of an emergency.

While children can't be expected to remember phone numbers, they can be taught to "dial zero, tell the lady what is wrong, and she will help you."

Be sure they know their home address. Telephone operators, trained to handle emergencies, may save your child's life.

Tried In Anson On Theft Charge

Joe Oberlin Lopez was tried in Jones County Court before Judge Leon Thurman Friday for theft under $50 following an arrest by Hamlin Police Department and Jones County Sheriff's office Nov. 17.

Lopez was charged with stealing a pair of boots belonging to Tommy Johnson. The boots were taken along with other items in a burglary of the John Johnson residence at Neinda Nov. 7, 1969.

Formal sentencing was set for 9 a.m. Mar. 9 by Judge Thurman.

'Tail-gating' Dangerous

"Tail-gating" can set off a violent chain reaction that nobody wants, reminds the Texas Safety Association.

At least one car length for each 10 miles per hour of speed is recommended and TSA says a driver will need every inch of that space to avoid trouble.

A large crowd turned out for the "Hoot-n-anny" at the McCaulley Gym Saturday night. No one left disappointed as the five bands put on a very entertaining display of country western music and talent. Cakes were auctioned off during short intermissions while the bands changed.

The Juniors and Seniors who were hosts of the affair wish to thank each and everyone that attended and special thanks to the bands. Proceeds will help finance the Junior and Senior trip. This year they will travel to Corpus Christi.

Six weeks tests are over and a few breaths are being held until report cards are handed out. Next big event will be the Junior and Senior play March 13. Seems the flu has slowed down so practice will begin in earnest. Hope to see you all turn out.

Track season is here and everyone can barely move around. The first track meet will be held Saturday at Rotan. This is a boy's track meet.

The Annual Staff has finished the "Eagle Yearbook" and they should be in before long.
